Tales from the Past

PROGRAM

We are proud to provide the most authentic experience of your stay, feeling the General courtesies, hospitality and the friendliness and embrace the hospitality of Arab culture

Heritage Village

To display the traditional life style in the emirate of Dubai, as well as a form of an introduction to the traditional customs, traditions, professions and local craftsmanship.

Diving Village

It was founded with the aim of introducing the marine life of Dubai and its traditional maritime professions including shipbuilding, fishing, pearl diving and maritime races.

Sheikh Saeed Al Maktoum House

It was the residence and premises for the Dubai Monarch during the first half of the 20th century till 1958, with its simplicity and vastness, the diversity of its wings and spaces (closed, semi-open and open) and the variety in its Wind towers (Barajeel).

Bur Dubai Souq – Textile Market

Spice Souq

Al Ahmedia Heritage Guest House

Heritage House

A rare opportunity to peek inside the one-time residence of a wealthy pearl merchant, built from coral and gypsum, it wraps around a central courtyard flanked by verandahs to keep direct sunlight out. Most rooms have audiovisual displays and use dioramas to recreate traditional aspects of daily life.

Al Ahmadiya School

In 1994, the Government of Dubai restored Al Ahmadiya School and transformed it into a historical museum as it provides a unique opportunity to discover the history of the educational development in the school, the emirate and the country.
